

Sunday Morning.

The English reviews of the New Testament have reached the end of the Acts. Bishop Lee, of Delaware, is said, last week, to have been the subject of a letter from a Japanese student at Ann Arbor, Michigan, who was recently baptised and received into the Methodist church.

Twenty-three thousand three hundred and eighty-four Jews reside in Paris, and about 40,000 in London. Henry Ward Beecher is reported as saying that there is about as much religion in the act of putting a horse shoe over the door for good luck as there is in putting a gilt edged Bible on a centre table for the same purpose. That's so.

The German delegates to the Evangelical Alliance assert that the condition of religious affairs in this country is far different from what their countrymen supposed, and pay a high tribute to the piety of American Christians.

An old seaman, at a religious meeting recently held in New York, in relating his experience, stated that when at sea in storms and tempests, he had often derived consolation from that beautiful passage of Scripture, "Faint heart never won fair lady."

The Lutheran Observer reports, as the effect of concessions granted by the Czar of Russia, a year or two ago, to the Lutherans in his empire, that thirty thousand persons in that country rejoined the Lutheran Church in 1872. These concessions were granted in response to the petition of a delegation from the Evangelical Alliance of the United States.

An old colored minister, in a sermon on hell, pictured it as a region of fire and smoke, where the damned froze through all eternity. When privately asked his purpose in representing Gehenna in this way he said: "Why I if I were to say that hell was warm, some of dem old rheumatic niggers would be wantin' to start down de berry road to de Kingdom of Heaven, and de niggers of Kentucky, presidin' Bishop of the Episcopal Church, has selected a board of inquiry into the charges preferred against Bishop Cummins. The place of meeting is required to be in Kentucky, at such time and place as designated by Bishop Smith. The choice of the board was determined by lot. The board consists of two ministers and two laymen, each, from the States of Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and Tennessee.

"I have known many a church to die 'cause it didn't give enough, but I never knowed a church to die 'cause it gave too much. Brethren, has any of you knowed a church to die 'cause it gave too much? If you do, just let me know, and I'll make a pilgrimage to dat church, and I'll climb de soft light of de moon to its moon-covered roof, and I'll stand dar and lift my hands to heaven and say, 'Blessed are de dead dat die in de Lord.'"

Among the horrible consequences of a famine in India, would be the large number of human sacrifices to propitiate the gods of the land. In times of calamity the Hindoo mind refuses to recognize the claims of Vishnu. The deities of fire and slaughter, of pestilence and famine, have, they imagine, shown their power, and it is necessary to satisfy them. Even at present, in Bengal, the priests of the Hindoo gods are slaughtering with the blood of a sacred bull, and if the worst comes, the human sacrifices will follow, as they have done before, even so recently, indeed, as 1869.

The Roman Catholic Church is making numerous converts in India. The propaganda has a staff in that country which has for its chief the Archbishop of Goa, under whom are no fewer than thirteen bishops in parishes, with between 800 and 900 priests. The returns made by the bishops bring the total of believers to a little over a million, being four times the number of Protestant native Christians. Indeed, the Goa diocese alone is stated to contain thirty parishes, or a number slightly exceeding that of the Protestant converts of all India. This particular district, of course is an exceptional one, for it inherits the fruits of the zeal of former Portuguese missionaries.

The records of the British Wesleyan Conference, which has just held its annual session, give curious evidence as to the longevity attained by its ministers. It appears that among the dead of the year 1872 are Thomas Jackson, who lived to be ninety years old; Thomas Waugh, eighty-eight; Daniel Macfarlane, eighty-two; William Shaw, seventy-seven; and eleven others whose ages ranged from seventy-four to ninety years. Of the ministers who retired permanently from the ministry, Dr. Stamp had traveled fifty years John Lomas fifty-three and William Pigott fifty-one. The majority of the other superannuates had seen forty years of service.

At the beginning of the century the erection of new churches in England proceeded at the rate of three per year. Thirty years afterwards the number had increased to forty, and it is now going forward at the rate of about one hundred and twenty. It was found that the average cost of a new church was a little under £5000, so that they were now spending something like £300,000 a year on new churches. They were further spending from £700,000 to £800,000 in the enlarging of existing churches. Adding to these two sums the amount spent on the restoration of cathedrals and the adornment of other churches, the total expenditure would reach to probably £2,000,000 per annum.

The Russo-Greek Church in Japan has a large and flourishing Japanese mission at Hakodadi, and is taking strong hold upon the affections of the people. Through the influence of the Russian Consul at Hakodadi the Japanese government has repealed the edicts which were placed upon her statute books 200 years ago against Christianity, and the way is now fairly open for the introduction of Christianity. The American Church is awake to the opportunity, and already there have gone out three young men this fall in the service of the Foreign Committee, for a life-long labor in this interesting field of missionary work.

Integrity is a virtue which costs much. In the period of passion it keeps self-denial to keep down the appetite of the flesh; in the time of ambition, with us far more dangerous, it requires very much earnestness of character to keep covetousness within its proper bounds, not to be swayed by love of the praise of men or official power over them. But what magnificent recompense does it bring to any and every man! Any pleasure which cost conscience a single pang is really a pain and not a pleasure. All gain which robs you of your integrity is a gain which profits not; it is a loss. Honor is infamy if won by the sale of your soul. But what wonderful and manly delights does this costly virtue bring into your consciousness here and hereafter. Spurgeon, writing of "Prayer," says: "Let us not employ prayer with a view to our own work alone, for narrow-minded supplications cannot be acceptable with God. Some prayers remind me of the story of the Virginia planter, who owned a slave in partnership with one of his neighbors, and being a pious man, was accustomed to wind up his prayers by saying: 'Oh, Lord! in Thine infinite mercy and goodness, bless my half of Pompey.' When Wesleyans pray for Methodists, and Baptists for their own congregations, and Presbyterians for their favorite confraternities, I would urge them to get a little further than 'Bless my half of Pompey.'"

The "Capital City" has been organized as Montgomery, M. A. Chalmers.

In the City of Selma last week, the Times says, Judge C. rendered an opinion declaring unconstitutional that part of the election law which gave no room to be closed in certain times and after during elections in that city.

Another squad, numbering between twenty-five and one hundred negroes, left yesterday for Mississippi. The negroes came from three or four plantations in the neighborhood of Liberty Hill, twenty miles south of Selma. It is said that the section of country has been nearly depopulated of negroes, and that the plantations are nearly stripped of negroes, and that some few may be injured by this, but the doubt is, and on the other hand, it is confident that the country generally will be greatly benefited.—Selma Times.

Montgomery Advertiser: A telegram to a gentleman of this city, J. B. Busted, says that he has not resigned and that he has no thought of doing so. It is said that he is pending against him in a few days, and that when he leaves that city it will be to go south and hold a term of his court. We think that his honor has now a private opportunity to play for even with the State. It would be an interesting thing to see Judge Busted charging the negro in the case of the United States vs. Geo. S. Spencer.

A private letter from Mr. O. H. Poy of Snow Hill, Wilcox county, dated Jan. 1st, 1877, gives the particulars of a terrible affair that occurred near Snow Hill, Wilcox county, on the morning of the 27th. "There was a fight yesterday morning between Frank H. and Curt Stein. They met in the road near Snow Hill. It is reported that Curt shot Frank through the head, and that Frank struggled to get out of the car, but he was shot again. Both men are dead. The matter, and found both men dead, lying side by side. Whisky was the cause of the affair."—Selma Times.

THE BEGINNINGS OF DISEASE.—It is as true as that "great oaks from little acorns grow," that "great diseases are often generated by seemingly trifling ailments. Casual fits of indigestion superinduce chronic dyspepsia, occasional bilious attacks culminate in fixed diseases of the liver, intermittent twinges in the legs and arms generate into the continuous agony of acute rheumatism. Not that such disastrous consequences are inevitable. Far from it. They are avoidable and neglect. A few doses of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will always cure casual indigestion or an ordinary bilious affection or arrest the premonitory symptoms of rheumatism. It is true that when dyspepsia, liver complaint, or rheumatism, or constipation, or nervous debility, or sick headache has become a permanent evil, and has even baffled the skill of eminent physicians at resisted all the ordinary remedies, it may still be eradicated by the Bitters; but it is better to Macbeth suggest, to crush the serpent's egg than the grown serpent. jan-1-dec10-14w
